

Media Advisory

CONTACT:

Lt. Chika Onyekanne
Officer-in-Charge, Fargo Navy Week
Navy Office of Community Outreach
817-729-6133
conyekanne@gmail.com
navyweek.org/fargo2011

Aug. 10, 2011

Fargo Navy Week Event Reminder Wednesday, August 10, 2011

11 a.m.-12:30 p.m.: Navy Band at Plains Art

Plains Art Museum, 704 1st Avenue North, Fargo

Navy Band Horizon kicks off a week of free, public performances at the Plains Art Museum.

Horizon is an eight-piece contemporary music ensemble of Navy Band Great Lakes that performs current Top 40, classic rock hits, Motown, country, funk and jazz at various venues and events throughout the Midwest. Local Contact: Kris Kerzman, Communication Manager, Plains Art Museum, 701-232-3821, kkerzman@plainsart.org.

1-2:30 p.m.: “Health in the Military” at TNT Kids Fitness & Gymnastics

2800 Main Avenue, Fargo

U.S. Navy sailors will be working with kids in TNT’s No Bummer Summer Program and the YMCA’s summer program, teaching them about health and healthy eating in the military, then guiding them through various physical activity stations. Local Contact: Nate Hendrickson, Special Needs & Kids Fitness Director, 701-365-8868, nate@tntkidsfitness.com.

1-2 p.m.: STEM in North Dakota and in the U.S. Navy

NDSU E. Morrow Lebedeff Hall, Room 183, 1310 Centennial Blvd. North, Fargo

Rear Admiral Patricia Wolfe and Rear Admiral Mark Guadagnini meet with members of the North Dakota STEM Network. The Navy's need for highly educated and capable sailors continues to grow as its role around the world expands and becomes more technically demanding. The North Dakota STEM (science, technology, engineering and mathematics) Network is a group of leaders from across North Dakota - from K-12 and college-level educators to economic developers - who seek to increase engagement in project-based learning driven by the science, technology, engineering and math (STEM) disciplines. Local Contact: Lisa Gulland Nelson, Greater Fargo Moorhead Economic Development Corporation Communication Coordinator, 701-364-1920, lgnelson@gfmedc.com.

For more information, and a complete, up-to-date schedule of events, go to navyweek.org/fargo2011.

