About BankNorth

Honesty. Loyalty. Integrity.

These values guide us. Always.

We've been serving people in our communities for generations. By working together and staying true to our roots, we've built our communities, supported our schools and businesses and taken care of one another.

We've been guided by values like honesty, integrity and loyalty every step of the way.

We offer a wide range of financial products and services – like savings and checking accounts, personal, business and farm and ranch loans and internet-based solutions – that make it easy and convenient to BankNorth.

More importantly, our staff provides the kind of excellent service that can only come from people who are as committed to our communities' vibrancy as you are.

It's about being a stand-up neighbor, lending a hand through tough times, celebrating and building together in good times, being there and making things easier all the time. And it's how we've been doing business as a family-owned, locally operated bank for more than a century.

History

We've Always Been Headed This Way

Moving forward together for more than a century.

First State Bank of Arthur was organized and issued a charter to begin business as a community bank in 1905. W. H. Simmons, Louis Bettschen, Fred Williams and J. H. Gale organized the bank and served as its first elected directors. W. C. Gamble was the first cashier.

From the beginning, First State Bank of Arthur held its customers' trust above all else. Its directors and officers worked to retain that trust through sound management that maintained the bank's financial strength.

In 1932, upon the death of Fred Williams, J. E. Sommerfeld was elected the bank's president and B. A. Helland became the cashier and executive officer. They guided First State Bank of Arthur through one of the most difficult periods in the history of banking.

The banking crisis of the early 1930s threatened the security of many banks and their customers. By the time

Experience is Always the Key Input

Decades of farm and ranch banking know-how, right here.

Our staff has been working with farmers and ranchers for decades. We know how to help you make decisions that make the numbers work for your farm, ranch or agriculture-related business. And decisions are made locally, based not just on the numbers, but on what we know about the person across the desk. From beginning farmer loans to operating lines of credit, we'll be a partner you can rely on through thick and thin.

Because at BankNorth, it's not about an interest rate, but our interest in making your operation go and grow.
